

bea(taine)festival
celebrating creativity as we age
Tipperary • May '15

May belongs to the Bealtaine
Festival, celebrating creativity as we age!

Over 120,000 people now take part in Bealtaine, making it one of Ireland's biggest arts festivals.

From dance to cinema, painting to theatre, Bealtaine showcases the talents and creativity of both first-time and professional older artists.

It is a chance for people to make new and challenging work, a chance to communicate traditions between the generations.

In Tipperary the County Arts service works in partnership with Tipperary Libraries to present and showcase the creativity found in abundance throughout the county.

This year we look forward to a Bealtaine filled with music, the spoken word, conversation, visual arts and crafts and film events. Most events are free or subsidised and we invite you to come along and get involved at a venue near you in Tipperary this May.

Tá fáilte roimh cáh páirt a ghlacadh i ceiliúradh na Feile Bealtaine.

Paul Durcan in conversation with Eamon O'Shea

Tipperary Bealtaine Festival 2015 and Poetry Ireland present award winning poet Paul Durcan and Tipperary hurling manager and poetry lover Eamon O'Shea in conversation as part of this year's festival.

The Source
Arts Centre, Thurles
Thur 7th May, 7.30pm
Admission: €7/€5 conc.
www.thesourceartscentre.ie

Professor of Economics at NUI Galway, with a special research interest in gerontology, Eamon O'Shea will explore themes of sport, literature and creativity in life with Paul Durcan who will read some of his much loved GAA poems, together with startling new work from his latest collection The Days of Surprise.

Join Paul and Eamon in what promises to be an inspiring event which re-inforces the aims of the Bealtaine Festival in encouraging enquiry, creativity and expression at all stages of life.

Tonos

Róisín O'Grady - Soprano

Eamon Sweeney - Baroque Guitar

Tue 12 May, Tipperary Excel 1pm. Cashel Library 7pm

Tonos specialise in a unique blend of Irish and European music from the 16th, 17th & 18th centuries; mixing Irish music with works by English and Continental masters; highlighting common threads and distinct differences. Tonos' music appeals to a cross-section of concert-goers, - those who enjoy Early Music, Irish Music, Vocal Music, Guitar Music and Classical Music.

'Musical Memories' with Fran Garry & Pat Marnane

Musical Memories will be performed by Fran Garry and Pat Marnane who will sing everybody's favourite songs, past and present. Audience members are welcome to sing along and maybe sing a song for themselves. Pat and Fran have been performing for many years in Ireland, the U.K. and the U.S., as the band 'Chain Reaction' and as solo artists.

Eileen O'Brien/Minogue & Nora Butler/Swan

Eileen O'Brien comes from a family background that is steeped in the Irish tradition. She is a highly respected teacher and has influenced many aspiring fiddle players. Eileen has recorded numerous albums to date, and has published two books of music, "The Compositions of Paddy O'Brien" 1991 and "The Definitive Collection of the Music of Paddy O'Brien" 2009.

Nora Butler is one of Ireland's leading exponents in the art of traditional singing and has achieved five all-Ireland titles. A member of the world renowned Bru Boru group, Nora has toured all over the world promoting Irish song. Nora has released two solo albums to date and has performed on numerous radio and television programmes. A native of Toomevara, Nora has resided in Nenagh for many years and coordinates the "Rambling House" monthly gatherings at Nenagh Pastoral Centre.

Bobby & Ann Gardiner

Bobby Gardiner who had previously played with the Kilfenora and Malachy Sweeney's Ceilidhe Bands spent 10 years in America including a stint in the American Army. Ann from Burncourt, Co. Tipperary, spent 2 years in America and returned with her husband, traditional box player, Bobby Gardiner who was born near Lisdoonvarna, Co. Clare, to start their new life at the farm at Ann's old home address in Tipperary and still plays at the Bru Boru centre in Cashel during the summer months. Both have recorded their work over the years.

The Dresser Project

A Research based Public Engagement Project
by Artist Michael Fortune taking place in Counties
Tipperary, Mayo, Waterford and Carlow in 2015.

The Project will be initiated in County Tipperary in association with Cashel Day Care Centre during the Bealtaine Festival. These five day 'countyresidencies' will produce findings, photos, videos and text which will feature on the project website www.thedresserproject.ie

The artists interest in this area stemmed from his own 103-year-old grandmother's dresser, and how these constantly evolving and ever changing displays reflect the experiences and values of their keepers.

This project is co-funded by Tipperary
County Council's Arts and Heritage Offices

'Deep End Dance' (2010) a short film shot above and under water, featuring 81-year old Madge Bolger and her choreographer son David. Madge is a qualified swimming teacher and lifeguard and has a teaching certificate in Synchronised Swimming. Now 81 years old, she keeps fit by swimming half a mile five times each week and attending weekly water aerobic classes.

This special Bealtaine event is part of a yearlong programme exploring Sport + Art and examines how human effort is presented in contemporary art. The project is funded by the Arts Council of Ireland Curator in Residence Award, and is developed in partnership with Tipperary County Council, North Tipperary Sports Partnership and The Source Arts Centre.

A national drawing day workshop for seniors with Miriam Robinson

Sat 16th May 10am-1pm
Tipperary County Museum, Clonmel

Participants are invited to reconnect with drawing by exploring line, colour and tone using a variety of grounds and mediums in this relaxed and social environment.

Facilitated by artist Miriam Robinson, this event presents an opportunity to experiment and choose from a range of quality drawing materials-including charcoals, pastels, paints and collage. All materials, tea & coffee will be provided.

Catherine Dunne

Catherine Dunne has been writing poetry, short stories and novels since childhood and her first novel, 'In the Beginning' was published in 1997 going on to be shortlisted for the 'Bancarella' - the Italian booksellers' prize. 'A Name for Himself' followed a year later, and was short listed for the Kerry Fiction Prize. Between 2000 and 2014, Catherine Published seven further novels.

Catherine's non-fiction book, 'An Unconsidered People' was published in 2003. This book was a result of a chance meeting with a woman who left Ireland in the 1950s to work in London which sparked a fascination with immigration that has lasted to this day. Catherine Dunne has researched this topic widely. Catherine will facilitate a number of writing workshops and talks on her work during this year's festival. Please see listings for details.

"Sweet Sixteen"

A STORYTELLING & BRAIDING PROJECT

Place for U Community Café, Clonmel
Every Tuesday in May, 10.15am

As part of a larger collaborative project, Sweet Sixteen, which will span 3 years, textile artist Theresia Guschlbauer will explore the theme of "Turning Sixteen" to coincide with next year's centenary commemoration of the 1916 Easter rising. Looking at archival material and sharing stories, participants will "braid" fragments of materials, song, poems and verses together as documents of "life lived".

Golden Years postcard Project

Damer House Gallery, Roscrea

Last year's project with the Active Retirement Group in Roscrea called "Shooting from the Hip" resulted in participants developing photographic portraits, in which they reinvented themselves for a New Passport Identity for their Golden Years.

This year in a follow up project the group will work with artists Patricia Hurl and Therry Rudin and photographer, Brian Redmond to develop a series of postcards which will enable the broader community to share the positive reflections of Roscrea through the eyes of the Golden Years.

The Hundred-Foot Journey

Directed by Lasse Hallström (Chocolat) from Richard C. Morais' novel, The Hundred-Foot Journey is an uplifting cultural feast.

When Hassan and his family, led by Papa (Om Puri), move to a quaint village in the South of France with the grand plan of opening an Indian restaurant in the picturesque countryside, they are undeterred by the fact that only 100 feet opposite stands a Michelin starred classical French eatery. However upon encountering the icy proprietress, Madame Mallory (Helen Mirren), the Kadam family realise they may have bitten off more than they can chew.

Outraged by the new arrivals, Madame Mallory is determined to have their business shut down. As cultures clash and food flies, an all-out war escalates between the two establishments - until, that is, Hassan's passion and talent for French cuisine begin to enchant Madame Mallory and even she can't deny this young chef could have what it takes to garner even more acclaim for her beloved restaurant.

The Quiet Man

Director: John Ford
USA / 1952 / 129 minutes / Certificate: G
Cast: John Wayne, Maureen O'Hara, Victor McLaglen, Barry Fitzgerald

Almost twenty years in the making, The Quiet Man was arguably the most personal film of director John Ford's long and illustrious career as well as one of his great achievements.

"Humorous, romantic, lively, endearing and lovingly photographed on location in Ireland"
Cork Film Festival 2010

"The Quiet Man remains as romantic and enjoyable as when it originally came out"
