

TIPPERARY PEOPLE & PLACES LECTURE SERIES

Tipperary Libraries is pleased to announce that the Tipperary People and Places Lecture Series returns to Tipperary Studies, The Source, Cathedral Street, Thurles for the fifth time this winter.

These lectures will take place on the third Tuesday of each month over the winter months, commencing at 7.30p.m.

October 2011 to March 2012

We welcome a new panel of excellent speakers with a wide range of subjects.

OCTOBER 18TH

Pat Bracken Victorian sport in Co. Tipperary-cricket & the military (Tipperary) Pat Bracken will look at aspects of cricket from the famine period up to the start of WWI, and assess how the game developed and declined during this period and the role of the military.

NOVEMBER 15TH

Raymond Gillespie Tipperary Manuscripts and their makers 1500-1700
(Maynooth)

DECEMBER 20TH

Denis G. Marnane Ballots & Bile: the unorthodox expression of opinions in general elections in the 1920s, '30s & '40s.
(Tipperary) During the early years of the state, voters made their opinions clear on issues and politicians, often in verse, sometimes insightful and always amusing.

JANUARY 17TH

Pádraig Ó Cearbhaill The Placenames of Tipperary in time and space
(Dept of Arts, Heritage & Gaeltacht)

FEBRUARY 21ST

Peter O'Grady Sir Michael O'Dwyer and the Punjab
(Tipperary)

MARCH 20TH

Brendan Ó Cathaoir Fr. John Barry: champion of the poor
(Wicklow)

ADMISSION FREE - TEA WILL BE SERVED - ALL WELCOME

For further details contact: Mary Guinan Darmody, John O'Gorman @ (0504) 29278 or E-mail: studies@tipperaryllibraries.ie